BILINGUALISM and LINGUISTIC DIVERSITY in Canada: A discussion of the results of the 2016 Census

HIGHLIGHTS

Canada is a bilingual country with English and French as official languages. Canada is also a country of cultural and linguistic diversity. In this presentation Dr Marilyn Lambert-Drache will discuss the current linguistic landscape in Canada based on the results of the 2016 census.

6 - 7 pm, 25 Mar 2019
Rm 3401, Lifts 17-18, Academic Building

All are welcome, and no registration is required.

SPEAKER

Dr. Marilyn Lambert-Drache
is currently Associate Professor of Linguistics in the Department of French Studies, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies at York University, Toronto, Canada. She has held the positions of Associate Vice-President (International) (2012 -2018) and Associate Dean of Students (2004-2012) at York University. Professor Lambert-Drache holds a Ph.D. in applied and theoretical linguistics from the University of Aix-Marseille in France. Her areas of expertise include French language education and language planning in French-speaking countries.